The Piano Quarterly, 1963 Gershwin at the Keyboard George Gershwin, 1924 Marigold Peter Dickinson, 1999 Billy Mayerl as pianist composer celebrity educator was one of the most brilliant figures in British music from the 1920s to the 1950s Born in London he became known in childhood as the Wonder Boy Pianist playing for silent films and was captivated by American popular music With the Savoy Havana Band he made an immediate impact on the earliest days of broadcasting and was known as the pianist with the lightning fingers Mayerl's own compositions in both quality and quantity are the most significant contribution to the genre of novelty piano which succeeded ragtime and overlapped with early jazz. The pace of these dazzling cinematic sketches in rag form perfectly encapsulates the hedonism of the jazz age. But Mayerl also wrote more contemplative pieces belonging to the English pastoral tradition; he was never just the composer of Marigold. Between the wars he became a familiar figure on the Music Halls playing two pianos at once and taking requests and he composed for musical comedies involving some of the best known British stars. As if this frantic pace was not enough he started his Billy Mayerl School in 1926 to teach syncopated piano playing and there were branches across England and abroad. This book which contains a full CD of Mayerl's historic playing is the first detailed study of his work and should ensure a permanent place for Mayerl and his music.
