raises questions most of my students feel and ponder. He lets them know they're not alone and that those questions in and of themselves are important. What resonates with me as an established artist and professor is how Alex challenges our need for comfort within a sometimes uncomfortable creative life. Alex is there to remind us that whatever one's station or place, we all need the courage to be creative, not just in our artistic world but in our lives as well. Tom Dowling, Professor, Orange Coast College. Creative Courage is a book that has grown out of many lectures that I've given on individual creative capacity and how understanding and encouraging it can inspire others around you to lift you up creatively. It's a dismantling of common perceptions of our understanding of problem solving and offers new ways of thinking of our creative process.
