The Latest Catastrophe Henry Rousso, 2016-07-06 The writing of recent history tends to be deeply marked by conflict by personal and collective struggles rooted in horrific traumas and bitter controversies Frequently today s historians can find themselves researching the same events that they themselves lived through This book reflects on the concept and practices of what is called contemporary history a history of the present time and identifies special tensions in the field between knowledge and experience distance and proximity and objectivity and subjectivity Henry Rousso addresses the rise of contemporary history and the relations of present day societies to their past especially their legacies of political violence Focusing on France Germany the United Kingdom and the United States he shows that for contemporary historians the recent past has become a problem to be solved No longer unfolding as a series of traditions to be respected or a set of knowledge to be transmitted and built upon history today is treated as a constant act of mourning or memory an attempt to atone Historians must also negotiate with strife within this field as older scholars who may have lived through events clash with younger historians who also claim to understand the experiences Ultimately The Latest Catastrophe shows how historians at times against their will have themselves become actors in a history still being made "The" Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1907 The Historians' History of the World: France, 1815-1904, Netherlands Henry Smith Williams, 1904 The Development of the French Monarchy Under Louis VI., Le Gros, 1108-1137 James Westfall Thompson, 1895 The Development of the French Monarchy Under Louis Vi Le Gros 1108 1137 by James Westfall Thompson first published in 1895 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it Education Outlook, 1894 British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1881 Educational Times, 1894 The Educational Times, 1874 Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement, 1926 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1897 French Quebec British Library, 1992 Within Anglophone North America the story of French Quebec is one of linguistic and cultural survival This catalogue of books published in Quebec in French charts the evolution of the province s literary social artistic and political culture from 1764 1990 It includes all works published in Quebec wholly or mainly in French collected by the British Museum and Library from the 1830s to the present Titles are listed under broadly based subject sequences Volume 1 covers French Quebec s creative and artistic output as well as its conception of itself as reflected in its philosophical and psychological works and encounters with other cultures This second volume includes publications relating to Quebec s social and political institutions history social order and geophysical features An introduction in English and French surveys the province's published output and the history of its acquisition by the British Museum and Library The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815 Noémie Étienne, 2017-02-21 The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century. A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice. The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750-1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time. Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris, Berlin, Rome, and Venice, Noémie Étienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien Régime and early post-Revolution France. Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers, artists, and craftsmen and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer. Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects. The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity, originality, and stability of artworks, emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael. There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815.

The Canada Gazette, Canada, 1911 The Consciousness of Communion with God, Gilbert Lee Pennock, 1919 French Forum, 1982 The Johns Hopkins Studies in Romance Literatures and Languages, 1925 Catalogue of Printed Books, 1891 Political Violence in Twentieth-Century Europe, Donald Bloxham, Robert Gerwarth, 2011-03-10 This is a comprehensive history of political violence during Europe's incredibly violent twentieth century. Leading scholars examine the causes and dynamics of war, revolution, counterrevolution, genocide, ethnic cleansing, terrorism, and state repression. They locate these manifestations of political violence within their full transnational and comparative contexts and within broader trends in European history from the beginning of the dissolution of the Ottoman Empire in the late nineteenth century through the two world wars to the Yugoslav Wars and the rise of fundamentalist terrorism. The book spans a greater Europe stretching from Ireland and Iberia to the Baltic, the Caucasus, Turkey, and the southern shores of the Mediterranean. It sheds new light on the extent to which political violence in twentieth-century Europe was inseparable from the generation of new forms of state power and their projection into other societies, be they distant territories of imperial conquest or ones much closer to home. The Monthly Literary Advertiser, 1847 Second catalogue, including the additions made since 1882, Baltimore: Peabody inst., libr., 1896
