Ezeulu A Stage Dramatization Of Chinua Achebes Arrow Of God:

Achebe the Orator Chinwe Okechukwu, 2001-03-30 Taken together Chinua Achebe's five novels Things Fall Apart 1958 No Longer at Ease 1960 A Man of the People 1966 Arrow of God 1967 and Anthills of the Savannah 1988 encompass the entire social historical and political experiences of Nigeria from precolonial times to the close of the 20th century Central to these experiences is the clash of Igbo culture with the ways of the West The novels show a society that has been fragmented and a people who are striving to reconstruct a world that they lost during their encounter with colonialism Achebe has stated that his main purpose for writing is to reveal the truth about his people and their culture This book examines his use of rhetoric to accomplish that objective Achebe's writings are fraught with rhetorical devices and he has harnessed the power of oratory to show how his society has responded to the African colonial encounter and its aftermath He uses oratory and rhetoric to both educate and persuade his readers and to delineate his characters Because of the central role of language in his novels his writings illustrate the nature of discourse among the Igbo as well as the larger Nigerian community This volume presents a broad overview of rhetoric throughout Achebe's works and demonstrates how he uses the novel genre for persuasive purposes

Chinua Achebe D. Carroll, 1990-05-15 This is a revised edition of Chinua Achebe 1980 a critical study of the most widely known African writer which now incorporates a discussion of his most recent work including his major new novel Anthills of the Savannah The study examines the context in which he writes that complex intermingling of his own Igbo society and European colonialism before undertaking a critical discussion of the five main novels his poetry and short stories Throughout there is an underlying concern with Achebe's system of values and the pressure on them through periods of colonialism independence political disillusionment and civil war The author finally seeks to relate Achebe's career to the role of the African writer a subject on which the novelist has written at length Relocating Agency Olakunle George, 2012-02-01 2003 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Combining a sustained critical engagement of Anglo American theory with focused close readings of major African writers this book performs a long overdue cross fertilization of ideas among poststructuralism postcolonial theory and African literature The author examines several influential figures in current theory such as Habermas Althusser Laclau and Mouffe as well as the theorists of postcolonialism and offers an extended reading of the Nigerian writers D O Fagunwa Wole Soyinka Amos Tutuola and Chinua Achebe He argues that contrary to what the purism and voluntarism common to postcolonial theory might suggest one lesson of African letters is that significant agency can result from acts that are blind to their determinations For George African letters offer an instance of agency in motion as opposed to agency in theory
