be responsible for the person concerned being left with an altered personality The lesson I have planned relates to both characterisation and psychoanalytic approaches After the lesson the students should have general knowledge about trauma and its effects Furthermore it should be clear that trauma can only be overcome by going through two phases which build up upon each other

Foer's Novel "Extremely Loud And Incredibly Close" Natalia Gresty,2016-08-25 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works University of Presov British and American Studies language English abstract This bachelor thesis analyses Oskar Schell the fictional character from Jonathan Safran Foer s novel Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close The chosen technique is called a case study since it examines the case of Oskar Schell with an emphasis on his mental state The thesis is divided into two main parts theoretical and practical The theory briefly deals with the author and his literary purpose explains the plot the basic theories of three mental disorders posttraumatic stress disorder autism and clinical depression The practical part demonstrates symptoms of these illnesses in Oskar s passages and in the end provides a possible diagnosis Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close Jonathan Safran Foer,2006 A new novel by the author of Everything Is Illuminated introduces Oskar Schell the nine year old son of a man killed in the World Trade Center bombing who searches the city for a lock that fits a black key his father left behind Jonathan Safran Foer emerged as one of the most original writers of his generation with his best selling debut novel Everything Is Illuminated Now with humor tenderness and awe he confronts the traumas of our recent history What he discovers is solace in that most human quality imagination Meet Oskar Schell an inventor Francophile tambourine player Shakespearean actor jeweler pacifist correspondent with Stephen Hawking and Ringo Starr He is nine years old And he is on an urgent secret search through the five boroughs of New York His mission is to find the lock that fits a mysterious key belonging to his father who died in the World Trade Center on 9 11 An inspired innocent Oskar is alternately endearing exasperating and hilarious as he careens from Central Park to Coney Island to Harlem on his search Along the way he is always dreaming up inventions to keep those he loves safe from harm What about a birdseed shirt to let you fly away What if you could actually hear everyone s heartbeat His goal is hopeful but the past speaks a loud warning in stories of those who ve lost loved ones before As Oskar roams New York he encounters a motley assortment of humanity who are all survivors in their own way He befriends a 103 year old war reporter a tour guide who never leaves the Empire State Building and lovers enraptured or scorned Ultimately Oskar ends his journey where it began at his father s grave But now he is accompanied by the silent stranger who has been renting the spare room of his grandmother s apartment They are there to dig up his father s empty coffin

Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg s multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark

Morning, Noon, and Night Arnold Weinstein, 2011-02-15 From Homer and Shakespeare to Toni Morrison and Jonathan Safran Foer major works of literature have a great deal to teach us about two of life's most significant stages growing up and growing old Distinguished scholar Arnold Weinstein's provocative and engaging new book Morning Noon and Night explores classic writing's insights into coming of age and surrendering to time and considers the impact of these revelations upon our lives With wisdom humor and moving personal observations Weinstein leads us to look deep inside ourselves and these great books to see how we can use art as both mirror and guide He offers incisive readings of seminal novels about childhood Huck Finn's empathy for the runaway slave Jim illuminates a child's moral education Catherine and Heathcliff's struggle with obsessive passion in Wuthering Heights is hauntingly familiar to many young lovers Dickens's Pip in Great Expectations must grapple with a world that wishes him harm and in Marjane Satrapi's autobiographical Persepolis little Marjane faces a different kind of struggle growing into adolescence as her country moves through the pain of the Iranian Revolution In turn great writers also ponder the lessons learned in life's twilight years both

King Lear and Willy Loman suffer as their patriarchal authority collapses and death creeps up Brecht's Mother Courage displays the inspiring indomitability of an aging woman who has borne every possible blow but is still standing still moving And older love can sometimes be funny Rip Van Winkle conveniently sleeps right through his marriage and sometimes tragic as J M Coetzee's David Lurie learns the hard way in Disgrace Tapping into the hearts and minds of memorable characters from Sophocles Oedipus to Artie in Art Spiegelman's Maus Morning Noon and Night makes an eloquent and powerful case for the role of great literature as a knowing window into our lives and times Its intelligence passion and genuine appreciation for the written word remind us just how crucial books are to the business of being human
