Eye Of The Albatross Visions Of Hope And Survival:

Eye of the Albatross Carl Safina, 2003-04 Interwoven with recollections of whalers and famous explorers Eye of the Albatross probes the unmistakable environmental impact of the encounters between man and marine life Safina's portrait results in an eye opening look at the health of our oceans 15 illustrations 13 maps Conservation Yael Calhoun, 2009 Examines the challenges of conserving the natural resources that live in the oceans rivers lakes streams and on land The Empty Ocean Richard Ellis, 2013-03-19 In The Empty Ocean acclaimed author and artist Richard Ellis tells the story of our continued plunder of life in the sea and weighs the chances for its recovery Through fascinating portraits of a wide array of creatures he introduces us to the many forms of sea life that humans have fished hunted and collected over the centuries from charismatic whales and dolphins to the lowly menhaden from sea turtles to cod tuna and coral Rich in history anecdote and surprising fact Richard Ellis's descriptions bring to life the natural history of the various species the threats they face and the losses they have suffered Killing has occurred on a truly stunning scale with extinction all too often the result leaving a once teeming ocean greatly depleted But the author also finds instances of hope and resilience of species that have begun to make remarkable comebacks when given the opportunity Written with passion and grace and illustrated with Richard Ellis's own drawings The Empty Ocean brings to a wide audience a compelling view of the damage we have caused to life in the sea and what we can do about it The Birds World Nicolae Sfetcu, 2021-10-25 Birds are among the most extensively studied of all animal groups Hundreds of academic journals and thousands of scientists are devoted to bird research while amateur enthusiasts called birdwatchers or more commonly birders probably number in the millions Birds are categorised as a biological class Aves The earliest known species of this class is Archaeopteryx lithographica from the Late Jurassic period According to the most recent consensus Aves and a sister group the order Crocodilia together form a group of unnamed rank the Archosauria Phylogenetically Aves is usually defined as all descendants of the most recent common ancestor of modern birds or of a specific modern bird species like Passer domesticus and Archaeopteryx Modern phylogenies place birds in the dinosaur clade Theropoda Modern birds are divided into two superorders the Paleognathae mostly flightless birds like ostriches and the wildly diverse Neognathae containing all other birds Who Owns the Wind? David McDermott Hughes, 2021-10-12 Why the wind and energy it produces should not be private property The energy transition has begun To succeed to replace fossil fuels with wind and solar power that process must be fair Otherwise mounting popular protest against wind farms will prolong carbon pollution and deepen the climate crisis David McDermott Hughes examines that anti industrial anti corporate resistance drawing on his time spent conducting field research in a Spanish village surrounded by wind turbines In the lives of a community freighted with centuries of exploitation people whom the author comes to know intimately clean power and social justice fit together only awkwardly A green economy will require greater efforts to get ordinary people such as these on board Aesthetics livelihood property and most essentially the private nature of wind

The Diversity of Fishes Gene Helfman, Bruce B. Collette, Douglas E. Facey, Brian W. Bowen, 2009-04-03 The second edition of The Diversity of Fishes represents a major revision of the world's most widely adopted ichthyology textbook. Expanded and updated, the second edition is illustrated throughout with striking color photographs depicting the spectacular evolutionary adaptations of the most ecologically and taxonomically diverse vertebrate group. The text incorporates the latest advances in the biology of fishes, covering taxonomy, anatomy, physiology, biogeography, ecology, and behavior. Hundreds of new and redrawn illustrations augment readable text, and every chapter has been revised to reflect the discoveries and greater understanding achieved during the past decade. A Flash of Golden Fire Thomas Elsner, 2025-05-01 In the early twentieth century, C. G. Jung survived an intense encounter with the unconscious. He did this by giving expression to his inner world in the paintings and dialogues found in the Red Book. Yet Jung felt alone in this work, unable to find a precedent or cultural parallel until he discovered alchemy. This ancient protoscience became the bridge Jung had been seeking between the remote past and the present. Yet between the downfall of alchemy in the eighteenth century and Jung's Red Book in the twentieth, it seems that there was a gap in the tradition. According to Jungian analyst and author Thomas Elsner, Samuel Taylor Coleridge's great visionary poem, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, is another link in that golden chain. In Elsner's analysis, Coleridge's nineteenth-century night sea journey can today be understood as a symbolic self-portrait of the collective unconscious, a self-portrait that like the Red Book finds its historical context and continuity in the alchemical tradition. Continuing the highly esteemed works arising from the Fay Lecture Series sponsored by the Jung Center, Houston, Elsner's A Flash of Golden Fire: The Birth, Death, and Rebirth of the Modern Soul in Coleridge's The Rime of the Ancient Mariner promises to further extend the understanding and appreciation of Jungian principles for practitioners, analysts, others interested in Jungian theory and practice, the psychological dimensions of Romantic poetry, and the evolution of Western consciousness.

Ecosystem Approaches to Fisheries Villy Christensen, Jay Maclean, 2011-03-03 Inspired by the work of the renowned fisheries scientist Daniel Pauly, this book provides a detailed overview of ecosystem-based management of fisheries.
