Eyewitness Travel Pack Penguin Books, Limited, Wars, Revolutions and Regime Changes in Hungary, 1912-2004 Béla K. Király, 2005 This book documents the personal experiences of the author who was privy to wars revolutions and regime changes during a volatile century Forced to become a professional officer he participated in all wars and revolutions following World War I He rose to the position of Commander in Chief of Hungary's National Guard during the 1956 Revolution but immigrated to the United States following the Soviet suppression of his revolutionary government Library Journal, 1999 Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Now Hiring! Clarke Canfield, 1996 The Scotland conference at which these 21 papers were originally presented was delayed by the coup in Russia underscoring the volatile relationship of politics and economics which has been fueled by rapid market growth in Eastern Europe and the touting of privatization as the solution for reviving prosperity These contributors critically examine such assumptions in the areas of ownership performance regulation and privatization strategies in the UK New Zealand Japan Hungary Poland Russia Malaysia and Tanzania Not surprisingly the conclusions regarding private sector efficiency and effectiveness are as varied as the political stabilities in each country Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Muslims on the Volga in the Viking Age Jonathan Shepard, Luke Treadwell, 2023-09-21 The year 922 saw a series of remarkable face to face encounters in the steppes between Bukhara and the Middle Volga Ibn Fadlan was an intrepid member of a diplomatic and religious mission from the distant caliphate in Baghdad to the ruler of the Volga Bulgars His account gives a vivid eyewitness description of the peoples he came upon whose appearance rituals and filthy habits both fascinate and appal and a famous depiction of a Viking Rus ship burial It is unique testimony to burgeoning exchanges between several different cultures and to the emergence of new political structures on the steppes Yet the account survives only as part of a later composite work raising questions of meaning and historical interpretation This pioneering interdisciplinary study of Ibn Fadlan s text and the world he surveyed draws on a variety of specialists to give readers both the bigger picture of cultural and economic change in Eurasia

Weekly ,1999 The Civilianization of War Andrew Barros,Martin Thomas,2018-08-09 Distinguishing between civilians and combatants is a central aspect of modern conflicts Yet such distinctions are rarely upheld in practice The Civilianization of War offers new ways of understanding civilians exposure to violence in war Each chapter explores a particular approach to the political legal or cultural distinctions between civilians and combatants during twentieth century and contemporary conflicts The volume as a whole suggests that the distinction between combatants and non combatants is dynamic and oft times unpredictable rather than fixed and reciprocally understood Contributors offer new insights into why civilian targeting has become a strategy for some and how in practice its avoidance can be so difficult to achieve Several discuss distinct population groups that have been particularly exposed to wartime violence including urban populations facing aerial bombing child soldiers captives and victims of sexual violence The book thus offers multiple perspectives on the civil military divide within modern conflicts an issue whose powerful contemporary resonance is all too apparent British Travel

Writers, 1940-1997 Barbara Brothers,Julia Marie Gergits,1999 Essays on British travel writers explores the political and social changes that occurred after World War II Technology such as color television home video the Internet and CD ROM s brought people pictures from around the world broadened their interest in travel Includes discussion of the various types of travel literature including political scientific historical and adventurous as well as the role of women travel writers The
