complex than allowed by a simple reception studies model Closely linking nine case studies in an innovative cultural and theoretical framework the book approaches the developing reputation of the composer from death to the present day along three paths Phantoms of the Opera deals with stage music Holy Spirits addresses the trope of the sacred and Specters at the Feast considers the impact of Mozart's music in literature and film Mozart's Ghosts adeptly moves the study of Mozart reception away from hagiography and closer to cultural and historical criticism and will be avidly read by Mozart scholars and students of eighteenth century music history as well as literary critics historians of philosophy and aesthetics and cultural historians in general The Guitarist's Resource Guide Joseph Rezits,1983 BMG; Banjo, Mandolin, Guitar

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
