Fire Into Ice Charles Fipke And The Great Diamond Hunt:

Fire Into Ice Vernon Frolick,1999 The true life story of the man behind the great Canadian diamond discovery

Barren Lands Kevin Krajick,2016-02-02 First published in 2001 Barren Lands is the classic true story of the men who sought and found a great diamond mine on the last frontier of the far north From a bloody 18th century trek across the Canadian tundra to the daunting natural forces facing protagonists Chuck Fipke and Stewart Blusson as they struggle against the mighty DeBeers cartel this is the definitive account of one of the world s great mineral discoveries Combining geology science history raw nature and high intrigue it is also a tale of supreme adventure taking the reader into a magical and now fast vanishing wild landscape Now in a newly revised and updated edition Skills' Mining Review ,1999-06

The Handbook of Personal Wealth Management Jonathan Reuvid,2006 This important guide now fully updated for a second edition and once again endorsed by the Institute of Directors has been written for high earners and wealthy individuals who are looking to maximise returns on their capital and protect their accumulated wealth It offers authoritative and jargon free advice to how to structure personal and business related finances as well as providing an accessible overview of current financial products It includes details on strategies for sound wealth management as well as offering a full examination of the available securities and financial products including alternative investments and self managed investments It also reviews the more proactive alternatives of starting a business or becoming a business angel

Resilience Gillian King,Elizabeth G. Brown,Linda K. Smith,2003-10-30 This volume brings to life the nature of resilience and adaptation to change by describing turning points or critical experiences in the lives of people with disabilities People with cerebral palsy spina bifida or attention deficit disorder are interviewed They describe events and experiences that changed their lives and pinpoint which factors helped or hindered their adaptation Interweaving these compelling stories with popular thought and research evidence the authors show how understanding the resilience of people with disabilities may help all readers create meaning in life and become resilient Rich in personal detail yet strong in its presentation of academic literature and other non fiction works related to resilience this volume will appeal to a wide variety of readers from people who wonder about the meaning of life to the parents of children with disabilities and organizations that deliver services to them to students and professors in the fields of psychology education social work and occupational therapy

Blood, Sweat and Earth Tjil Vanneste,2021-09-16 A sweeping history of our enduring passion for diamonds and the exploitative industry that fuels it Blood Sweat and Earth is a hard hitting historical expos of the diamond industry focusing on the exploitation of workers and the environment the monopolization of uncut diamonds and how little this has changed over time It describes the use of forced labor and political oppression by Indian sultans Portuguese colonizers in Brazil and Western industrialists in many parts of Africa as well as the hoarding of diamonds to maintain high prices from the English East India Company to De Beers While recent discoveries of diamond deposits in Siberia Canada and Australia have brought an end to monopolization the book shows that advances in the production of synthetic diamonds have not yet been able to eradicate the exploitation caused by the world's unquenchable thirst for sparkle The Journal of Gemmology ,2000 Vols for July 1964 include Proceedings of the Gemmological Association of Great Britain Teaching Science ,2004 Quill & Quire ,1999 Canadian Books in Print ,2001 Diamond Matthew Hart,2002 An examination of the diamond trade telling the stories of some of the more colorful characters who mine and market the valuable gems and discussing the dark side of dealing in diamonds Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Gems & Gemology ,2002 The Mining West Richard E.
