Gifts Glittering and Poisoned Chanon Ross,2014-11-18 Spectacles designed to capture our attention surround us Marketing movies shopping malls concerts and virtual realities capture our imaginations and cultivate our desires We live in a society of the spectacle However is the power and prevalence of spectacle unique to the modern era In the pages of Gifts Glittering and Poisoned early Christian voices echo across the centuries to show that the society of the spectacle is not new Our era resembles a time when the spectacular entertainments of ancient Rome had a profound effect on every aspect of social life By drawing on the rich theology and witness of early Christianity Gifts Glittering and Poisoned asks what it means for us to live in a new era of empire and spectacle Through Augustine's description of the demonic it shows how consumerism constructs a sophisticated symbolic order a society of the spectacle that corrupts our deepest longings for God

1968 - Culture and Counterculture Thomas V. Gurlay, Daniel Matthys,2020-11-11 Sexual revolution terrorism student riots civil rights Stonewall Riots feminism and the publication of Humane vitae The year 1968 is a milestone in twentieth century history The papers presented in this volume mark an interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach to a year and indeed a decade whose movements and events are still very much alive in contemporary society The fruits of the conference are published in this volume to invite ongoing reflection and a critical discourse to a watershed moment in our history and culture The Gift of Beauty and the Passion of Being William Desmond,2018-07-06 This book gathers a set of reflections on the gift of beauty and the passion of being There is something surprising about beauty that we receive and that moves the passion of being in us The book takes issue with an ambiguous attitude to beauty among some who proclaim their advanced aesthetic authenticity Beauty seems bland and lacks the more visceral thrill of the ugly indeed the excremental We crave what disrupts and provokes us not what gives delight or even consoles By contrast attention is given to how beauty arouses enigmatic joy in us and we enjoy an elemental rapport with it as other Surprised by beauty our breath is taken away but we are more truly there with the beautiful when we are taken outside of ourselves We are first receivers of the gift of surprise and only then perceivers and conceivers My attention to the passion of being stresses a patience a receptivity to what is other What happens is not first our construction There is something given something awakening something delighting something energizing something of invitation to transcendence The theme is amplified in diverse reflections on life and its transient beauty on soul music and its relation to self on the shine on things given in creation on beauty and Schopenhauer's dark origin on creativity and the dynamis in Paul Weiss's creative ventures on redemption in Romanticism in the thought of Stanley Cavell on theater as a between or metaxu on redeeming laughter and its connection with the passion of being A Theological Engagement with Pornography Matthew John Paul Tan,2025-09-17 In Christian circles consuming pornography has been treated primarily as a moral issue and the analysis of pornography has dealt with motivations harms and responses This book explores how such analyses end up missing important theological dimensions of pornography and in so missing those dimensions leave important aspects of the cultural power of pornography unaddressed The book argues that a purely moral analysis of pornography has led to several presumptions concerning pornography about sex bodies and the erotic Working through these presumptions is another subtler presumption that the act of viewing pornography constitutes an act of viewing proper This book argues that the Christian tradition can also furnish a theological analysis of pornography as a theological reality which uncovers these unaddressed dimensions concerning the cultural challenge posed by pornography In addition it argues that theology s vocabulary will also yield surprising analyses that overturn these three presumptions Ultimately the book argues that pornography distorts the very act on which it trades namely the viewing of the sexual act More specifically it states that pornography is not sexual erotic or embodied arguing instead that it is Christological mimetic and divinizing In making these critiques Christian theology also declares that a properly theological engagement with pornography will involve the transformation of gazing into beholding

Eschatology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, Peter John McGregor, Danijel Uremović, 2025-12-04 The theology of the last things has long been and still is a source of confusion and contention among Christians Indeed the century just past could be called the century of eschatology In that century theologians such as Albert Schweitzer C H Dodd Rudolf Bultmann Oscar Cullmann and Karl Barth loom large On a popular level the end of the second millennium was replete with predictions of the end or the rapture or the great tribulation and such predictions have not ceased This being so the field of eschatology the theology of the consummation of the cosmos should be of interest to every Christian not just those who are theologians This collection of chapters brings eschatology into conversation with a wide variety of disciplines including Scripture patristic and medieval theology philosophy and history The result is a scholarly volume that enriches both eschatology and the fields with which each contributor engages Eschatology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium will help pastors and catechists in their ministries to understand more deeply the riches of a theology which is about much more than the end times
